

Occupational health

Hessen attaches great value to occupational safety and health, creating safe and fair working conditions for all employees in all sectors and professions.

Attention is paid to factors like noise, hazardous substances, machine safety, and physical and social stress, and these aspects are discussed amongst companies, worker representatives, supervisory bodies, specialists and cooperation partners. Their mutual objective is to create permanently high working standards.

Links

Occupational health scheme \(in German\)

Humane working conditions \(in German\)

Innovative models for working hours \(in German\)

Knowledge platform for employability \(in German\)